Getting to Know the Children's Section of Your Library

Our Children's Room is dedicated to ages 0 to about 12 years of age.

We have almost 4,000 items in our Children's book collection! Most of them fall into general Fiction ("Chapter Books") or Non-Fiction books; however we do have spaces in the Children's room that are dedicated to different genres and formats. Here is an idea of what you might find, and where:

American Indian: [AM-INDIAN] Peoples, places, stories, and many other topics about American Indians in this section.

Biographies: [BIO] the life stories of historical figures and other interesting people. Abraham Lincoln, Martin Luther King, and Houdini are just some of the many titles.

Graphic Novels: [GN] While these may look like "comic books" to some, they contain complex plots and characters. They also come in Non-Fiction!

Reading Level Books: A selection of books for reading levels pre-1 to 4, to help beginning readers learn to read in easy steps.

Picture Books: [EASY] Designed to capture the attention of young readers and pre-readers with lots of colorful pictures and easy-to-follow words.

Board Books: [BOARD] made of thick cardboard and hard to destroy. Perfect for our youngest book lovers.

Holiday Themes: [HOL] A selection of seasonal books that rotate as the year progresses.

DVDs: [DVD] Movies rated suitable for family viewing

Audio Books: [BKCD] Books read out loud on both CD's and Playaways. Playaways are little units that come preloaded with a book; all you need to listen are some ear buds.

New: Near the audio books, New Books remain on the "new" shelf for the first 6 months of their library life.

Oversize: Beautiful books that are too large to fit on regular shelves

Remember, if you can't find something on the shelf, always ask at the desk or check the catalog; it could be somewhere else in the library.
